

A 9-WEEK SERIES

Intentional Parenting

"Train up a child in the way he should go; even when he is old he will not depart from it." — Proverbs 22:6

THE CENTRAL IDEA

Behavior is never the real issue — the heart is.

Children are worshippers by design. They will bow to something. Our job is to point that worship toward God — not just manage what shows on the outside.

LESSONS 1-2

Framework & Mindset

Parenting flows from a theology of the heart. Every behavior traces back to what a child worships.

LESSON 3

Marriage as Ministry

Your marriage is the first theology your children see. A gospel-shaped home starts with how spouses love each other.

LESSONS 5-6

Discipline with Purpose

The rod and reproof work together. Correction without communication misses the heart. Always ask: what idol is driving this?

LESSON 7

Technology & School

Screens and academics are discipleship opportunities. Wisdom is the goal — not achievement, compliance, or safety.

Goal: wisdom

LESSON 8 — THE COACHING PLAN

Three Perspectives on Your Child

In Relationship with God

Faith · Prayer · Heart toward God ·
Is faith their own or borrowed?

In Relationship with Himself

Self-awareness · Strengths & weaknesses · Response to failure

In Relationship with Others

Friendships · Conflict · Serving vs.
using · Peer approval

LESSON 9 — SEX & SEXUALITY

Be the first voice. Don't let silence be your answer.

Deuteronomy 6:7 — "Talk of them when you sit, when you walk, when you lie down, when you rise."
100 one-minute conversations > 1 one-hundred-minute conversation

THE 4 T'S OF COMMUNICATION

How to Talk to Your Kids About Hard Things

T1 Trust

Build the relationship before the conversation.
Kids talk to people they trust.

T2 Timing

6–12 months before they're likely to encounter it.
It's never too late to start.

T3 Tone

Receptive, informal, composed. 60–70% of communication is non-verbal.

T4 Talk

Have the conversation. Proactive beats reactive every time.

"The goal of parenting is not behavioral conformity but heart transformation."

— Tedd Tripp, Shepherding a Child's Heart
