Discipline Part 2

Last Week's Assignment

Read Deuteronomy 6:4-9 together as a couple this week.

Then discuss: What does it look like in our home for our children to love the Lord with all their heart, soul, and mind?

Write down 2-3 specific, concrete things that would be true of your kids' lives if that was actually happening.

The Rod – Why

Circle of Blessing

Definition of obedience

Immediately, Completely, Good Attitude

Circle of Blessing

The Rod – When

- Childishness vs Foolishness
- Directives were clearly given
- Direct defiance/disobedience
- What is the child characterized by
- Other factors to consider (hunger, sleep, etc)

The Rod – How

- Privacy
- Circle of blessing (Eph. 6:1-3)
- Seek to understand their heart. “Help me understand...”
- Bring in the gospel, “I am selfish too. That is why God sent Jesus, to save selfish people like you and me...”
- How could you have responded?
- Clear about # of swats (severity should fit the offense and the child)

The Rod – How

- Apply the rod
- Hug and tell them you love them
- Is there anyone that you need to apologize to?
- Pray with and for them

The Rod - What it is NOT

- NOT the right to unbridled temper
- NOT the right to hit our children whenever we want
- NOT venting frustration
- NOT retribution
- NOT associated with vindictive anger

The Rod - Objections

1. I love my children too much to spank them
2. I'm afraid that I will hurt them
3. I'm afraid that it will make them rebellious and angry
4. I'm afraid of teaching them to hit
5. It doesn't work
6. I'm afraid of being accused of child abuse

Questions?

Assignment

Talk through with your spouse what your approach to spanking is. Discuss and be on the same page. If these are new concepts, role play how you want it to look like.
